Hello Dairy Goat Exhibitors!

Welcome to the 2026 REDGA Doe Show. In this flyer you will find all the information you need to get ready for a great time at the show! This is the 57th anniversary of the Redwood Empire Dairy Goat Association Show!

This year we are at the SONOMA COUNTY FAIRGROUNDS in Santa Rosa, CA. Goats will be housed and Shown in the Pig Barns and Dorfman Ring with parking for trailers and trucks around the paved barnyard roads and on the grassy areas as well. There will be camping available this year however there will be NO sleeping in the barn and no tent camping will be permitted but sleeping in your trailer is allowed. Pens will be assigned but distributed on a first entered, first served basis.

Youth are very important to the REDGA community -- we appreciate their support and dedication to our show. Again, we will have Best Doe In Show owned & Shown by a Youth under one of the judges each day. Additionally, there will be free special youth shirts for youth exhibitors that should be worn while showing.

We will only be accepting ONLINE ENTRIES this year!

Please visit www.redga.org for a link to the Entry Site!

REDGA SHOW POLICIES

Pen Fee: The \$15 pen fee will cover the cost of the pen as well as cleaning. FIRST STRAW IS NOT INCLUDED. You can order straw from one of the vendors on the ADDITIONAL INFORMATION page, or bring your own. Pens usually use  $\frac{1}{3}$  to  $\frac{1}{2}$  of a bale of straw per pen. Pens are large with wooden slat sides and can be split down the middle if needed. \*\* Pens are wooden slats with a decent size opening, young Nigerian Dwarfs and small standard size kids can/will squeeze through the slats of the pens. Please plan accordingly.

Dogs: No dogs will be allowed in the BARN or SHOW AREA. If you need to bring your dog, please respect the concerns of others and keep them penned or enclosed away from the barn. There is plenty of area for them to run and play outside. Please keep them on a leash and clean up after your animals. Thank you.
